CHANGE OF COMPANY NAME

Following approval by shareholders Australian resources company Talga Gold Limited (ASX:TLG) has changed its name to Talga Resources Limited.

The name change reflects the company's focus on the world-class graphite and iron assets in Sweden and the evolution of the company beyond a single commodity focus. Importantly, Talga will continue to explore on its gold tenements in Western Australia but intends to expend a significant amount of resources progressing its high grade graphite and iron assets in Sweden.

Shareholders overwhelmingly supported the change of company name and effectively immediately, Talga Resources Limited is the name of the new entity and the Company's website is now www.talgaresources.com. The company's ASX code TLG remains unchanged.

Sincerely

Mark Thompson
Managing Director
